Dear Corey,

Hey there! Your Gatlinburg Fall decorations post on Facebook, especially the one with the scarecrows, caught my eye. I have a unique story idea that I think would be a fantastic addition to your blog! A new candle store in Gatlinburg has taken on decorating in a whole new direction this year and it has caught quite some attention!

Southern Timeless Candles Candle Bar & Boutique has just set up their dancing skeleton display, creating some fantastic photo ops. This display will be set out during business hours, weather pending, until the end of October. These motion activated dancing skeletons have been catching attention from everyone so we think this would make a great story for you.

Southern Timeless Candles Candle Bar & Boutique is a wood-wick candle making experience as well as a boutique. The location is 1004 Parkway Suite 801 Gatlinburg, TN 37738. In Calhoun's Village across from Ober Gatlinburg.

Sincerely,
Tara Griffin
